DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

To have a general inventive concept under PCT rule 13.1, the inventions need to be linked by a special technical feature. The special technical feature recited in claim 46 is an antibody against Mina53 protein. In view of this Ota, et al. (EP1074617A2, claim 10 and SEQ ID NO. 10739) reads on the claim. Ota, et al. teach an antibody against the polypeptide encoded by the polynucleotide of SEQ ID NO. 10739, which is identical to the polypeptide encoded by the polynucleotide of SEQ ID NO. 1 of the present application. Therefore the technical feature recited in claim 46 is not special. Accordingly the groups are not so linked as to form a single general concept under rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 26-32, 36-45 and 57, drawn to a cancer-associated gene, mina53.

Group II, claim(s) 33, drawn to a human mina53 protein.

Group III, claim(s) 34, drawn to a mouse mina53 protein.

Group IV, claim(s) 35, drawn to a rat mina53 protein.

Group V, claim(s) 46-49, drawn to an antibody against mina53 protein.

Art Unit: 1643

Group VI, claim(s) 50-51, drawn to a method for detecting mina53 protein.

Group VII, claim(s) 52-54, drawn to a method for diagnosing cancer.

Group VIII, claim(s) 55, drawn to a method for preventing or treating cancer using a nucleic acid.

Group IX, claim(s) 56, drawn to a method for preventing or treating cancer using a monoclonal antibody.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-VIII do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: As set forth above, in view of the teaching of Ota et al., the groups are not so linked as to form a single general concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because the technical feature of claim 46 is not special.

Groups V and VI-VII and IX are related by product and method of using. Their shared technical feature is an antibody to the mina53 protein, but Ota, et al. teach an antibody to the protein sequence. Groups I and VIII require a nucleic acid, which is not required for Groups V-VII. Groups II-IV require protein sequences from different species, which are not required for Groups I and VIII.

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1643

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of an invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

5. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

Art Unit: 1643

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
